External speaker biographies

Corinne Dettmeijer-Vermeulen Dutch National Rapporteur on Trafficking in Human Beings

Corinne Dettmeijer was appointed as Dutch National Rapporteur on Trafficking in Human Beings on October 1st, 2006. She has for many years been a judge at the district court of The Hague, since 1995 as vice president of the court. As a judge, she handled cases in juvenile, criminal, family and migration law. She has been a member of several (international) professional bodies and advisory committees in the field of juvenile law. After finishing her law degree at Leiden University, she started her career as a public prosecutor in Rotterdam. She is vice president at the district court of The Hague, member of the board of the Leiden University Fund and member of the board of the Pro Juventute Foundation

Michael Sheath LucyFaithfull.org

Michael Sheath qualified as a Probation Officer in 1988, and spent ten years in the Probation Service in England before joining the Lucy Faithfull Foundation. He works with sexual offenders and their partners, and provides risk assessments for use in Family Court proceedings. Over the last fifteen years he has developed a specific interest in the behaviors of child abuse material viewers. He trains Police Officers and Social Workers in the assessment and management of sexual offenders in the community, and is a trainer on the Europol course for Police charged with investigating on line sexual crime. He has advised the British Foreign and Commonwealth Office in respect of the safeguarding of children on Pitcairn Island, and travelled to the South Pacific in that capacity last year. He also sits on the Football Association's Safeguarding Review Board as an independent member.

Sharon Girling OBE

Sharon Girling OBE is a retired police investigator and consultant with over 33 years' experience. She is currently conducting training programs for schools and law enforcement both nationally and internationally. She has been appointed as the Child Protection Advocate at the International Foundation for Online Responsibility (IFFOR).
